

LYON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE MEDIA RELEASE

1. On Monday, January 3, 2022, around 11am, Sheriff Brent White served a Warren District Court Bench Warrant on Andrea Breedlove (33) of Hopkinsville. The warrant was issued for Failure to Appear in a 2020 drug possession case. She was able to post bond and was released following her arrest.
2. On Wednesday, January 5, 2022, at 11:49am, Sheriff White served a Lyon Circuit Court Bench Warrant on Lloyd A. Clemons (21) of Dallas, GA. Clemons voluntarily surrendered to the Sheriff after he failed to appear in court for his sentencing on a felony drug trafficking case. Clemons was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.
3. On Wednesday, January 5, 2022, at 3:45pm, Sheriff White responded to the Sheriff's Office where Diane M. Ballard (61) of Eddyville had appeared and requested to speak with a law enforcement officer. Ballard was the subject of a complaint which was received at 2:19pm the same date from a business on KY 293. Ballard was found to be hallucinating and heavily under the influence of Methamphetamine; thus, she was subsequently arrested. Upon taking her into custody, Ballard became loud and disruptive in the courthouse and had to be restrained. She was charged with Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct-2nd Degree, Possession of Controlled Substance 2nd Degree, Possession of Controlled Substance 3rd Degree, and Illegal Possession of a Legend Drug. She was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.
4. On Thursday, January 6, 2022, at 10am, Sheriff White charged Maryann M. Williams (37) of Scottsville with ten (10) Bench Warrants from Warren District Court charging her with Failure to Appear on a multiple theft-related cases. She remains lodged in the Ross-Cash Correctional Complex.

5. On Thursday, January 6, 2022, around 12pm, Sheriff White took a report of a FEMA fraud complaint, whereby a citizen in Lamasco received a letter from the US Small Business Administration pursuant to a FEMA storm damage claim the victim never made. Sheriff White reminds citizens this could be someone who has stolen your identity and is making a fraudulent FEMA claim because you have an address in a county where a disaster has been declared. If you suspect fraud involving your identity in this manner, you should report this matter to both the SBA Customer Service Center at 1-800-659-2955 and the National Center for Disaster Fraud at (866) 720-5721.

6. On Thursday, January 6, 2022, at 1:30pm, Chief Deputy Sam Adams and Sheriff White, along with Lyon County EMS and Kuttawa Fire Department responded to a single-vehicle collision on KY 295 South, just prior to the Springs Subdivision. The investigation revealed Clifton S. Flowers (33) of Princeton was South on KY 295, operating a 2003 Dodge Ram pickup truck, when he lost control of his vehicle and left the roadway before colliding with a tree head-on. He was transported by Lyon County EMS to the Caldwell County Medical Center where he was treated and released. Following his release, Chief Deputy Adams charged Flowers with DUI-2nd Offense and Operating a Motor Vehicle Without an Ignition Interlock Device. He was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.

7. On Thursday, January 6, 2022, at 4:43pm, Deputy Seth P'Pool was dispatched to a single vehicle collision on I-69 at the 71-mile marker. His investigation revealed a 2002 Ford was South bound on I-69 when the driver, James Adams (40) of Central City, lost control and collided with a guard rail. Adams was not injured, but the vehicle was disabled and had to be towed from the scene.

8. On Thursday, January 6, 2022, beginning around 7:15am and continuing through 5pm, Sheriff White and Deputies responded to multiple winter weather related incidents. There were multiple reported collisions; however, once on scene, most were determined to be only slide-offs or motorist assists. Personnel responded to six (6) on KY 93 South, one (1) on KY 274, one (1) on KY 1055, one (1) on Rose Lane, and one (1) on Commerce Street in Eddyville. There were two collisions (1-injury/1 non-injury) listed above on KY 295 South and I-69 at the 71-mile marker respectively.

**###